

Story 5

Transportation expenses are costs incurred by an employee or self-employed tax payer while away from in a travel status for business. The service of transportation of goods by road continues to be exempt even under the GST regime.

